

For a healthier sleep... choose down.

Down and feather bedding

- Provides natural warmth, without the weight compared to other materials
- Conforms naturally and more comfortably to the body for each individual sleeper
- Is breathable, which allows it to help regulate body temperature during the night
- Is hypoallergenic, since the technology used to process down and feather creates a clean, naturally dry environment that is not conducive to dust mites

